Marisol C. Angelini

Board Director – C-Suite Advisor

Marisol Angelini is an energetic global business leader who thrives on challenging environments and has leveraged marketing to grow businesses consistently in global companies across many distinct settings. Her relentless optimism allows her to paint a better reality for the business, which draws diverse teams together to drive a focused strategy into action. She is truly a globe trotter having lived in 7 different countries, embracing their cultures, and learning from the world.

She currently serves on the board of Bush Brothers, a +100-year old family enterprise which markets the leading branded beans in the USA, and on the National Association of Corporate Directors, Atlanta Chapter. She is also engaged with Endeavor Global Inc. as a business leader expert and coach to a large variety of companies across many industries “scaling-up” their businesses globally.

At The Coca-Cola Company, her roles as VP of Marketing in many Operating Units (Mexico, Brazil, Central America, Eastern/Central Europe), and General Manager Global Water and Tea businesses, have resulted in a proven track record of revenue and profit optimization.

Besides Food and Beverages, Angelini has experience in Personal Care, Household Cleaners, Oral Care, and Paper categories, which she ran while working for Procter & Gamble in Latin America.

She holds an MBA from Mercer University in Atlanta and a BA from Georgia State.
